Name of Organization

A Rocha Canada

What do they do?

A Rocha is an international Christian organization which, inspired by God's love, engages in scientific research, environmental education, community-based conservation projects and sustainable agriculture.

What do they do?

They envision the transformation of people and places by showing God's love for all creation.

Restoring salmon and other wildlife habitats, training young scientists, inspiring school children, feeding low-income families.

A Rocha is transforming people and places through hands-on conservation projects, environmental education programs and sustainable agriculture initiatives.

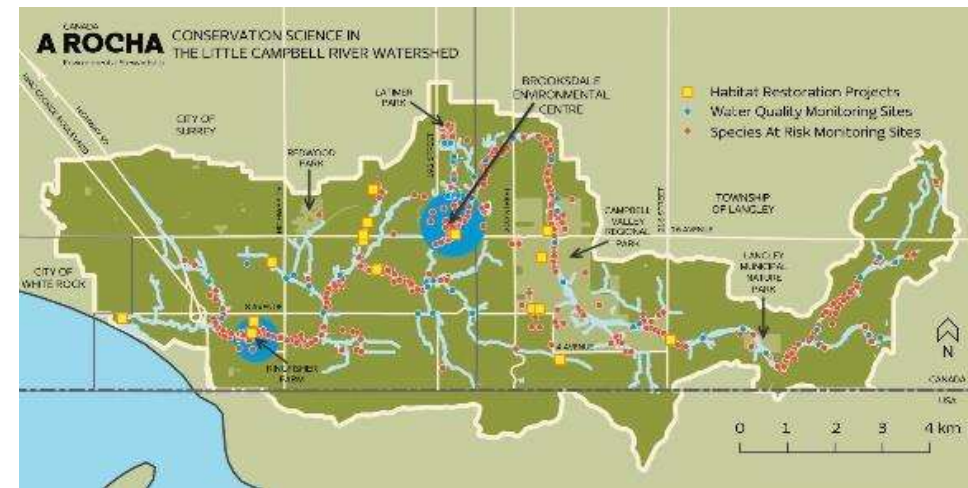

What do they do?

The A Rocha worldwide family has nature conservation projects of various forms in 19 countries and a growing network in 10+ other nations.

How does what they do connect with Newbern's mission?

Here in Canada they have community-based projects in BC, Manitoba, and Ontario. There is also an emerging national program with aim to equip and facilitate Christian communities and groups to take up the mission of creation care in their own communities and neighbourhoods.

How can we pray for them?

Pray that their works here in Canada and around the world will continue to inspire and equip God's people to be the signposts of God's love to the world in caring for His earth and people.
