Bringing the light to Southeast Asia

What do they do?

This young couple have been in their field country since last fall (2022) doing language training. They will begin their first assignment this fall.

An aerial photograph of a large, intricate green maze. The maze is composed of many narrow, winding paths that form a complex, circular pattern. The paths are made of a vibrant green grass or low-lying vegetation. In the bottom right corner of the maze, there is a small, simple wooden building with a dark roof. The overall scene is lush and green, with a soft, hazy atmosphere.

How does what they do connect with Newbern's mission?

Their work as C&MA IWs in a closed country represents the continuation of the global mission work done by earlier generations of faithful servants, which is being passed on to an emergent generation of frontier workers. Supporting them is one way Newbern can fulfill the Great Commission around the world.

How can we pray for them?

- Both they and their toddler girl are facing different health challenges. Pray for healing and effective medical care.
- Successful completion of language training, getting the needed assessment and gaining fluency.
- Discernment for ministry roles in the fall.
